

These are starters that can be used for daily journal writing activities.

1.	What scares you? Why?	16. Where is your favorite place to go trick-or-treating?
2.	Describe the largest pumpkin you ever saw.	17. Describe a leaf falling to the ground.
3.	How does a bear know when to hibernate?	18. If you could create a haunted house, what would be in it?
4.	List the names of all the Halloween costumes you have worn over the years. Which one did you like best? Why did you like it best?	19. If you were a witch and could cast a spell, what would your spell be like?
5.	What kind of candy will you pass out on Halloween? Why did you pick that kind of candy?	20. Would you rather be a bat or a bird? Why?
6.	What does it feel like to jump in a pile of leaves?	21. Describe the sound of stepping on a fall leaf.
7.	Describe the costume you are going to wear this year without telling what it is.	22. You are a witch flying on your broomstick. How do you feel? What do you see?
8.	Explain how to bob for apples.	23. Describe what the weather is like during the fall.
9.	Write about why fall is fun.	24. Describe your magic broomstick. What does it look like?
10.	Write a recipe for Witch's Brew.	25. Write everything you know about mice. What else would you like to learn?
11.	What do you think it would be like to live in a cave?	26. Describe the smallest pumpkin you ever saw.
12.	Describe a squirrel getting ready for winter.	27. If you were a bear, what would you pack for your long winter's hibernation?
13.	Describe a bat.	28. If you could see in the dark, what would you do?
14.	Write the steps for making a pumpkin into a jack-o-lantern.	29. Imagine that you had to sleep upside down. What do you think it would be like?
15.	Imagine you wake up one morning on a leaf and are the size of a caterpillar. What happens?	30. Describe how a pumpkin starts from a seed and grows into a pumpkin.

